INTRO

I have a finance degree in Finance and a 1 year experience in financial analysis and risk management acquired from my attachment and work experience. I have a few months of studying and continuously practising coding websites and applications using modern HTML, CSS and Vanilla JavaScript and React js. Building user-friendly and easy to use websites has become a passion that I aim to dig into each day. I actively seek out new technologies and advancements. I can be reached through mail, @ms.Maina001@gmail.com.
